

Judge sentences man for drug distribution

A Geneva County judge sentenced a wheelchair-bound Slocumb man to serve 10 years in prison Thursday for a felony drug distribution conviction.

Assistant Geneva County District Attorney Stephen Smith said Judge P.B. McLauchlin sentenced Jonah Daniels. Smith said a jury found Daniels guilty in December of distribution of crack cocaine in Malvern.