

12A • FRIDAY, MAY 11, 2012

Volume 105, Issue 132
3 Sections, 36 Pages

dothaneagle.com
A Media General Newspaper

Man convicted of sodomizing teen

OZARK — A Dale County jury found a Daleville man guilty on Wednesday of sodomizing a mentally handicapped teenager last year, according to authorities.

Court records indicated Tony Lashawn Hayes is expected to be sentenced next month after he was convicted Wednesday of first-degree sodomy.

Dale County District Attorney Kirke Adams said the incident occurred in June.

Hayes' attorney, David Robinson, could not immediately be reached for comment.