

Samson man pleads guilty to brother's death

James Syvotchie Boggs recently pleaded guilty to the death of his 34-year-old brother and was sentenced to serve 20 years in prison.

Assistant Geneva County District Attorney Stephen Smith said Boggs, 40, of Samson, pleaded guilty to reckless manslaughter in the death of Oscar Marvin Tidwell in December 2007. Smith said the plea stemmed from an alcohol- and cocaine-related motor vehicle crash.
