

Informing more than 77,000 readers daily in print and online

Saturday, December 10, 2011

DOOTHANEAGLE

dothaneagle.com

Real people. Real news.

75 cents

Today: Sunny
Winds 10-15 mph

High 60°
Low 36°

Wicksburg beats Houston Academy 1B

European leaders come to financial agreement 8A

Critics of his record ask: Why Gingrich? 11A

Alcohol-Related Wreck

Man charged with reckless murder

BY EBONY HORTON
ehorton@dothaneagle.com

the life of one man and injured another, according to authorities.

Midland City police arrested Mark Casey Owens, 33, of Rodney Street, on Wednesday and charged him with felony reckless murder. He was placed in the Dale County Jail under $75,000 bail.

Dale County District Attorney Owens' passenger, 34-year-old Bobby Jerry Crews, was killed in the wreck and the truck driver was injured, Adams said.

A Midland City man was charged with felony reckless murder in relation to an alcohol-related wreck that claimed the life of one man and injured another, according to authorities.

Midland City police arrested Mark Casey Owens, 33, of Rodney Street, on Wednesday and charged him with felony reckless murder. He was placed in the Dale County Jail under $75,000 bail.

Dale County District Attorney Owens' passenger, 34-year-old Bobby Jerry Crews, was killed in the wreck and the truck driver was injured, Adams said.

Owens' attorney, Cada Carter, declined comment on the case, which is expected to go before a Dale County grand jury soon.