

Woman gets 13-month sentence

A Geneva County judge ordered a Samson woman to serve 13 months in prison for burglarizing an occupied home.

Bracewell

According to a statement from Chief Assistant

District Attorney Bill Filmore, Circuit Court Judge Ken Quattlebaum sentenced Nichole Bracewell, 26, to six years in prison, which was suspended for 13 months to serve in prison followed by probation.

The statement said Bracewell pleaded guilty to stealing money during the burglary of a home on Pullam Street in Samson. The statement said the victim woke as Bracewell left the home during the burglary.
